

MSc Integrated Management of Freshwater Environments

Full time: One year. Part time: Two/Three years

Programme content:

The programme includes the following modules:

- Independent Research Project linked with industry
- Aquatic systems: hydrological, hydrochemical and geomorphological processes
- Aquatic Ecosystems: structure and function
- Biogeochemistry: carbon, nutrients and pollutants in aquatic systems
- Catchment hydrology: managing water resources and hydrological extremes
- Hydrogeomorphology: river and floodplain appraisal and management
- Field and laboratory methods for freshwater environmental science
- Data analysis for freshwater environmental science

Further information

Programme enquiries:

Professor Angela Gurnell. MSc IMFE
Programme Director
a.m.gurnell@qmul.ac.uk

General enquiries:

Jenny Murray, Postgraduate Administrator
j.c.murray@qmul.ac.uk

www.qmul.ac.uk/postgraduate/apply/index.html

Applications may be submitted on-line at the above address

Queen Mary
University of London